From the scent of homemade soaps to the tinkling of a wind chime made from recycled materials, it's easy to incorporate all five senses while finding fun, holistic accent pieces for your home, apartment or work space. For more decorating ideas, visit smartmagpa.com. Visit these local shops and more during Go Green in the City from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. April 21 in downtown York.

SIGHT, SMELL: Eco-friendly and locally made by Honeybee Creations in Lancaster County, these all-natural beeswax candles can set up an instant ambiance for just a few dollars. Sunrise Soap Company, in downtown York, offers a variety of candles in various shapes and sizes.

SMELL, TOUCH: Go beyond your regular hand soap with these made-in-house soaps containing all-natural and essential oils. Scents include everything from delicious peppermint cocoa to bright, fresh lemongrass. Sunrise Soap Company sells the soaps mix and match three for $12. SIGHT, TASTE: Use a little red to amp up your guests' appetites. This plastic dish and bowl set for about $4 from Target work great indoors and out.

TASTE, SIGHT: Inspire some spring cravings by filling a wooden or glass bowl, like this one available at Target for $14.99, with some fresh fruit. Fresh fruit not in season? Fake it with some better-than-your-grandma's plastic versions of your favorite summer snackers. www.Target.com
