Style shouldn't have to suffer in today's thrifty economy. Antiques, retro pieces and flea-market finds are affordable accent pieces that can make your space feel like a million bucks. Thrifty finds, whether recycled or repurposed, can always be made new again with a coat of paint or a little TLC, or they can be enjoyed in their historic glory, just as they were 40 or 50 years ago.

CRYSTAL LAMP & JACKS: Add some sparkly flair to a night stand or end table. $125. The wrought-iron jacks make perfect antique-inspired accent pieces and great paperweights. $8 each. HMB Designs, York Refindings, 465 Prospect St., York. refindings.com

CHIC EXCURSION: Store things out of sight in style with these antique suitcases. Small suitcase, $24.95; larger suitcases, $39.95. Grey Beards Antiques and Collectibles, 51 N. Main St., Jacobus. geezerscafe.com/Grey-Beards-Antiques.php

LIGHTING WITH DESIGN: Give any table ambience and a distinct antique feel with a pair of aged candlesticks. $30 each. HMB Designs at York Refindings.

VINTAGE TABLE: With multipurpose uses, this could double as an end table or a night stand. The bright blue gives it a unique flair. $45. Grey Beards Antiques.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN: This screen print might not be old, but it definitely has a vintage feel. $199. Grey Beards Antiques.

GREEN GLASS: This beautiful large and heavy-pressed canister/jar looks like an LE Smith design likely to be out of the 1960s. The texture is similar to a hobnail pattern. $35. Tinted Vintage.

SEASON IN RETRO STYLE: Made from ceramic with cork bottoms, this pair of tomato salt and pepper shakers is likely to have been produced in Japan in the 1960s. $8. Tinted Vintage. on Etsy.com
