

DOWNTOWN HISTORY

Above: Katelyn, left, and Barbara Fitz work Dec. 17 at Dennis Fitz Produce, which has been owned by three generations, at Central Market. Fitz Produce has been around more than 70 years, according to co-owner Dennis Fitz.

SONYA PACLOB — DAILY RECORD/SUNDAY NEWS

Left: Shoppers line up at a meat counter in Central Market in 1941. This photo comes from a collection of large-format negatives, courtesy of the York County Heritage Trust.

+ Online: One local resident shares his memories of Central Market in the Daily Record/Sunday News' remember series. Read this story and more on everything from vendors to the latest renovations at YDR.COM.

Celebrating 125 years CENTRAL MARKET of community & growth

SONYA PACLOB — DAILY RECORD/SUNDAY NEWS

David Dietz and Elise Walkington stop for a portrait at their family-owned business Dietz Produce at Central Market.

Daily Record/Sunday News

In just a few short days, York's historical landmark will end its 125th year-long anniversary and move into the start of the next 125 years.

Since the summer, multimedia journalist Sonya Paclob has worked on a mini-documentary of Central Market.

+ Online: Watch mini-documentary on York's Central Market at YDR.COM

She's interviewed people, taken photographs and shot video that captures the market's memories, architectural beauty, diversity, renovation and growth.

On this page, we take one last look at some of the history and current vendors at the market for 2013.

ON THE MARKET'S BIRTH YEAR

Central Market shares its birthday in 1888 with other interesting points in history:

- Harpo Marx of the Marx Brothers was born.
- Marvin C. Stone of Washington, D.C., patented the wax drinking straw.
- Grover Cleveland was defeated in the Nov. 6 presidential election by Benjamin Harrison.
- National Geographic magazine published for the first time.
- And the first indoor baseball game was played in Philadelphia.

Right: This photo of York's Central Market in 1941 is part of a series of large format negatives collection of the York County Heritage Trust. In 2013, Central Market celebrates 125 years.

SUBMITTED

Left: Nicole and Sean Austin, owners of The Copper Crust Co. Pastry Cafe, pose recently with their 5-and-a-half-month-old baby, Vivian, at Central Market in York.

SONYA PACLOB — DAILY RECORD/SUNDAY NEWS

Far left: This Central Market photo comes from a collection at the York County Heritage Trust.

SUBMITTED

MOVING UP

Read about employers

Bell Socialization Services recognized GENCO Distribution/GlaxoSmithKline as its 2013 Employer of the Year.

Read more on E2

HEALTH INSPECTIONS

Latest Inspections

Each week, we publish the latest health inspections reported by the state health department.

FULL STORY ON PAGE E3

AUTOMOTIVE EVENTS

See what to do

Want to check out the latest automotive events for south-central Pennsylvania? We have a listing every week.

FULL STORY ON PAGE E3

JOYCE BUPP

Year of animal tales

Columnist Joyce Bupp offers her take on some of the more "ludicrous" tidbits that made the news this year.

FULL STORY ON PAGE E5